1859 Bel Air Road in Los Angeles, California, is currently listed at $68,000,000 by Sotheby's International Realty - Beverly Hills Brokerage.

Enveloped in the lush landscape and bound by the vision of award-winning architectural firm Tag Front and interior designer Cesar Giraldo, this property offers 20,000 square feet of venerable beauty.

The sleek curvature of the exterior of the house is meant to be an embodied art form with clean lines, geometric shapes, and a contemporary design. An eco-green living wall and manicured pathway above a water feature encompass the 350-foot-wide frontage and lead to a vista of the ocean, Catalina Island, and the canyons from Bel Air.

The grand spiral staircase appears suspended between the two stories, and was carefully engineered with aluminum and steel. The free-flowing main level dialogues with the outdoor veranda from the sunken formal living room and intimate entertainment spaces, to the breakfast nook and Poliform chef's kitchen with a hidden caterer's preparation galley.

Each statement room is designed with a subtle transition from the last. The primary suite is a private oasis with fireplace, sitting area, two walk-in closets, and a spa-like shower with tubs, steam shower, and dual vanities. Three-story walls of glass drape a bamboo cove and expose the incredible backyard scape of one-and-a-half acres with an outdoor lanai and infinity pool and spa.

The lower level channels leisure and wellness, complete with a playroom, theater, gym with TechnoGym equipment, and wine lounge for more than 1,152 bottles.
